

ViiV Health Care Funded Project Quarterly Progress Report

End early Child /Forced Marriages in Baluchistan

September 2020 to April 2021

Project Details

Project name	End early Child /forced Marriages
Location	Quetta, Pakistan
Reporting period	September 2020 to April 2021
Report compiled by	Program Section
Date submitted	April, 2021

Summary

This sixth month quarterly report of the implementing project End Early Child Forced Marriages in Baluchistan, Pakistan. The second last quarter activities conducted with productive results. This report is comprised of the quarter planned activities and all the planned activities are achieved. This quarterly report highlights the activities of September 2020 to April 2021 this quarter activities went appropriate according to the plan and result oriented.

This quarterly Progress Report will highlight & report on the following activities:

Activity Name	Status
1. Effective law, legislations, policy reforms and community actions forum to End Early/child and Forced Marriages	Achieved
2. Mobilization, awareness raising, advocacy, lobbying, networking and coalition building sessions to end early/child and forced marriages laws/policies including non-Muslims early/child and forced marriages prohibition and resistance separate law	Achieved
3. Institutionalization of reporting, referral, linking, networking, coalition building and coordination mechanisms to respond effectively for the prevention, protection, safeguard, safety, safe spaces, legal aid, shelter, medico legal aid, FIR chalking, counselling, referral and rehabilitation services and facilities providing of/to the vulnerable, victims/survival of early/child and forced marriages girls and boys (Non-Muslims girls and family) through conducting liaison and coordination	Achieved

meetings with lawyers, bar rooms, law enforcement agencies, legal aid centres, helpline centres, legal aid clinics, elected representatives, legislatures, faith based leaders, religious clerics, state institutions and district authorities
4. For motivation, sensitization, educating and changing the mindset, behaviours, attitudes, approaches and mechanism of religious clerics, faith-based leaders, Nikah Registrars, tribal chiefs, local leaders, notables, elders, (Jirga's and Panchayats representatives- Alternate Dispute Resolutions) to avoid early/child and forced marriages within their communities while conducting of disputes resolutions meetings/gathering and decisions taking, consultative meetings and dialogues.	Achieved
5. To build pressure in media to highlights and give maximum coverage in electronic, social and print media conducting press conferences for the approval of end early/child and forced marriages laws/policies including non-Muslims early/child and forced marriages prohibition and resistance separate law, suggested amendments of CMRA 1929 into new amended bill,	Achieved

Activity

- 3 For effective law, legislations, policy reforms and community actions on end early/child and forced marriages (Non-Muslims girls forced marriages), need of non-Muslims (FMPR) law conducting forums for recommendation, suggestion, feedback, reflection and contribution on need of amendment in CMRA 1929

Date	The scheduled activities of this quarter conducted in months of October 2020 to April 2021
Participates	The participants by different gender participated in

Progress	Youth Association for Development is implementing the project End Early child /Forced marriages in Quetta Baluchistan. The project is funded by ViiV health care. YAD Pakistan successfully conducted the mentioned above activities according to plan in the given time frame in Quetta. In project activities the stockholders are engaged and the political activist, parliamentarians’ human rights activists and mixed gender participated in activities. The sessions remained productive, the message was conveyed and the objectives of activities are obtained Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The activities conducted successfully • The targeted stockholders and beneficiaries participated • Discussed with stockholders and their involvement in project • Collected data, information at first hand from ground realities. • Discussions with stakeholders and their involvement in the project • Efforts for effective legislation and advocacy • The participants shown interest to replicate the message in their communities • YAD developed strategy and action plan shared with stakeholders for finalisations and its implementation • The participants incorporated suggestions and recommendation • The participants made commitments to end early child /forced marriages.
-----------------	--

<Activity > 2

For motivation, sensitization, educating and changing the mindset, behaviours, attitudes, approaches and mechanism of target groups, beneficiaries and stakeholders to avoid early/child and forced marriages within their communities’ consultative meetings and dialogues.

Status	Achieved
Date
Participants

Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To aware, mobilize the community to end early child marriages To motivate the communities to raise the voice and concert steps to end early child /forced To educate the community regarding the menace of early child/forced marriages To bring changes, mindset attitudes to end early child/forced marriages Signing of joint ECFM ban agreements are signed by local elders to end early child forced marriages.
Progress	YAD has conducted successfully the activity with stockholders to attain the project objectives. The project beneficiaries and stockholders were targeted and motivated them to end early child /forced marriages the project aim and objective is shared and briefed the participants. In sessions the project stakeholders’ beneficiaries were besieged and in each meeting 30-40 participants participated. In various sessions, meeting joint ECFM ban agreements are signed by local elders to end early child forced marriages. Ending child marriage is essential to enable millions of adolescent girls the opportunity for a better life and to realize their full potential, while improving maternal and child health in Baluchistan Pakistan. Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The activities conducted successfully in time frame The mixed gender stockholders and beneficiaries’ participants participated Aware, mobilize the community to end early child marriages Motivated the communities to raise the voice and concert steps to end early child /forced Educated the community regarding the menace of early child/forced marriages Bring changes, mindset attitudes to end early child/forced marriages Signed of joint ECFM ban agreements are signed by local elders to end early child forced marriages. Made commitments for removing cultural barriers to end early child /forced marriages Awareness in community Making commitments for girl’s education promotion is remedy to end child marriages.

<Activity >

Institutionalization of reporting, referral, linking, networking, coalition building and coordination mechanisms to respond effectively for the prevention, protection, safeguard, safety, safe spaces, legal aid, shelter, medico legal aid, FIR chalking, counselling, referral and rehabilitation services and facilities providing of/to the vulnerable, victims/survival of early/child and forced marriages girls and boys (Non-Muslims girls and family) through conducted liaison and coordination meetings

Status	Achieved
Activity dates
Objectives	To institutionalize the mechanism of reporting, referral, linking, networking, coalition building and coordination to respond effectively for the prevention, protection, safeguard, safety, safe spaces, legal aid, shelter, medico legal aid, FIR chalking, counselling, referral and rehabilitation to end early/child and forced marriages.

Progress	YAD with collaboration ViiV health care funded project has activities of this quarter to end early child /forced marriages in activities conducted successfully and the mixed gender of stakeholders and stakeholders. The sessions conducted with rooms, law enforcement agencies, legal aid centres, helpline clinics, elected representatives, legislatures, faith-based leaders, state institutions and district authorities to End Early Child / intention of such activities was to institutionalize develop reporting, referral, linking, networking, coalition building and respond effectively for the prevention, protection, safeguard, safety, safe spaces, legal aid, shelter, medico legal aid, FIR chalking, counselling, referral and rehabilitation to end early/child and forced marriages. Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The activities conducted successfully according to implementation plan • The project stakeholders and participants actively participated • Consensus developed among the stakeholders to cope with this issue • The police department responds actively to end early child /forced marriages • Strengthen the family counselling service in order to change the conservative attitudes and practices of early and forced marriages • Ensuring that girls stay in school and have continued access to quality education are two of the most effective ways of preventing child marriage and are critical to protecting girls from the significant social, economic and health consequences of marrying too young. • Encourage linkages with youth groups to provide peer-to-peer support to fight against Child marriage. 	 achieved the Baluchistan. the project lawyers, bar centres, legal aid religious clerics, Forced. The mechanism of coordination to
-----------------	--	---

<Activity

Mobilization, awareness raising, advocacy, lobbying, networking and coalition building sessions to end early/child and forced marriages laws/policies including non-Muslims early/child and forced marriages prohibition and resistance separate law

Status	Achieved
Objective
Activity dates

Progress	Youth association for Development has successfully conducted the mentioned above captioned activities in Quetta Baluchistan in all activities the participants are registered in designed format Different class and cadre people participated in activity and the participants were briefed about YAD intervene and project funded by viiv health care ‘End early Child forced marriages. In session the discussion is made regarding the roles in promoting women’s access to their rights and role of men in protecting women from violence, protect rights and rise voice against early forced marriages and non-Muslim girls forced conversation and marriages. The exciting law 1929 Act was suitable according to that age and today it need amendment according to changes environment. Input created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The mobilisations activities conducted successfully • The male /females participated in sessions • The participated were aware, mobilised • The actual image of society presented regarding end early child /forced marriages • An enabling environment of tackling issue is raised • Participants shown interest to enhance legislation to end early child /forced marriages • Pictures of session
-----------------	--

<Activity

To build pressure in media to highlights and give maximum coverage in electronic, social and print media conducting press conferences for the approval of end early/child and forced marriages laws/policies including non-Muslims early/child and forced marriages prohibition and resistance separate law, suggested amendments of CMRA 1929 into new amended bill

Status	Achieved
Activity dates

Progress	Youth Association for Development has successfully conducted the mentioned above captioned activities in Quetta press club. The print, electronic media personals cover the activities. The aim of these activities was to highlight the early child /forced marriages in media houses. The information is distributed regarding early child /forced marriages. The press conference held to respond positive changes, aware, highlight the issue and to amend the laws polices. The media personals asked questions. Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The press conferences activities conducted successfully • The print/electronic media journalists participated • The media houses are aware and informed • The YAD program manager presented the scenario • Presented CMRA1929 and suggestions and recommendations for amendments. • An enabling environment of tackling issue is raised • Newspapers statements • Sharing of newspapers statements on social media sites. • Pictures of activities
-----------------	--

Activity: All Arts competition to end early child /forced marriages and development.

Status	Achieved
Activity dates
Progress	YAD Pakistan conducted All Arts competition and short film festival in Quetta Baluchistan. The Artists throughout the province participated in this All Arts Competition. The participates work was presented at exhibition day. The paintings portrayed informative messages and highlighted the very alarming issue.in this competition a large number of painting received. The painting theme was ending early child /forced marriages and the painting showed the menace of child forced marriages, ill health consequences, less information, education, its causes behind. YAD developed the booklet of received paintings. All the paintings were assembled in one booklet in proper way with caption. The artist biography is given in caption and the idea and concept regarding the painting is captioned. Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All Arts competition conducted successfully • A large number of artists take part in competition • Paintings regarding end early child/forced marriages theme received • The painting is compiled in booklet • The booklet is developed and published • The booklet disseminated • Hundreds of copies were printed in landscape • The biodata of artist is attached • The concept and idea of painting is captioned

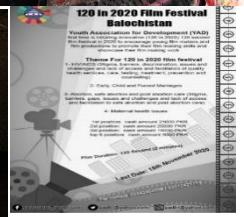

Activity

Development of booklet

Status	YAD Pakistan has successfully conducted the all Ars competition The innovate approach to aware, mobilize and inform A booklet has been developed of the received paintings YAD from all over Baluchistan including arts academies, university students, the received art work is compiled in booklet. A booklet provides enough space to offer information. The developed booklet is one effective, inclusive of product information and updates details and promotional offers where possible The booklet is designed in very impressive way. The Artist short bio data, his / her affiliation with institution and the concept and idea regarding the Art work is included in booklet. This Booklets allow you to deliver eye-catching, useful, targeted information to the targeted population. The booklet is published in portrait with caption and according Input created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The booklet is compiled under the theme of child/forced marriages • The booklet is designed in very impressive shape • A booklet provides enough space to offer information • The developed booklet is one effective, inclusive of product information and updates details • The Art picture and bio data included in booklet • The idea/concept of painting is included in booklet
---------------	---

Activity; Short film festival making competition

Progress	YAD has conducted 120 in 2020 Film Festival and Film Making Competition for youth under project theme end early child /forced marriages. YAD has taken this initiative to express of awareness, inform educate, mobilised the community related to end early child /forced. this short film competition was not funded activity. A positive feedback response came from different community and visitors. This innovative idea of short films has great impact to reduce the menace of end early child forced marriages, enhance awareness, mobilised, educating the vulnerable community to end early child /forced marriages in Quetta Baluchistan. In total 12 films were received and among them most of were related to early child /forced marriage and they were given the following certificates and cash payments. Output created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Short film festival conducted successfully • In total 12 films were received under theme end early child /forced marriages • Films are screened on big screen • The community is mobilised, aware, and educate • Films are share on social media • Great feedback from visitors
-----------------	---

Sub Activity: End Early child/forced marriages story telling documentary

Period of activities	February 2021
Progress	Youth Association for Development (YAD) Pakistan is implementing the Early/Forced marriages project funded by ViiV Healthcare (UK) under Positive actions on girls & women (PAGW). YAD Pakistan Produced Storytelling Documentary Early, Child & Forced Marriages In this Documentary the real-life stories of the victim and survivals of Early, Child & Forced Marriages as well as the overall social, institutional, and individual Behaviours and practices of early, child & Forced marriages, this documentary Produced to raise awareness & change mindset of perpetrators & general public to reduce & avoid Early, Child & Forced marriages. In documentary the work is highlighted as well as the aim of project and its objectives focused. The aim of this documentary is to well inform, educate aware as well as break the cultural barriers regarding. Further the voice is recorded with subtitles Input created <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The story telling documentary successfully developed • The documentary script is submitted to program manager for approval • Presented the real story of the effected women in documentary • Produce an edited Video Recording of the activities captured, and the footage of the recorded activities. • present nine minutes documentary • the documentary is uploaded on YAD social media sites • the link of documentary is attached 	